2.06.020 Special meetings

A. A special council meeting is called at a time other than those fixed for regular meetings. Unless emergency circumstances require otherwise, special meetings shall be held at the usual location for regular meetings.

B. Special meetings may be held on the call of the mayor or three council members upon not less than twenty-four hours, written or oral notice communicated to each council member. In an emergency, a special meeting may be called on less than twenty-four hours' notice if all council members are present, or there is a quorum and all absent members have waived in writing the required notice. A waiver may be made either before or after the time of the meeting. The waiver shall be attached and made a part of the journal for that meeting. (Ord. 222-92 §1, 1991; prior code §2.20.020)
